

Subscription Code of Conduct

In order to protect the value of your subscription and the integrity of the content, it is vitally important that you respect the service(s) provided by our site.

With that in mind here is the code of conduct which everyone partaking in the service must follow to ensure the value and quality of the service.

NOTE: failure to comply (or suspected failure to comply) with this code of conduct will result in permanent suspension of your access to the service.

1. You MUST NOT share, or cause to be shared, any content made available to you as part of the subscription.
2. You MUST NOT, under any circumstances, allow access to any electronic storage system made available to you, by our site.
3. You MUST NOT attempt to copy or reproduce any of the technical aspects of the service.